

KNOWING YOU KNOWING ME

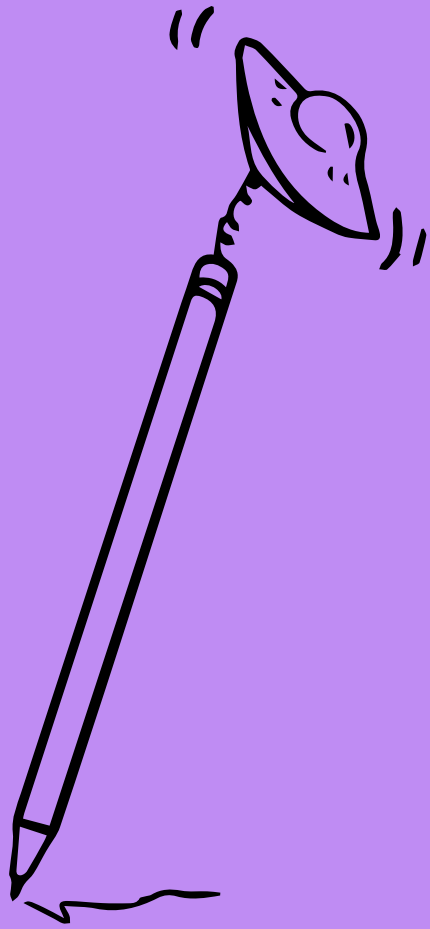

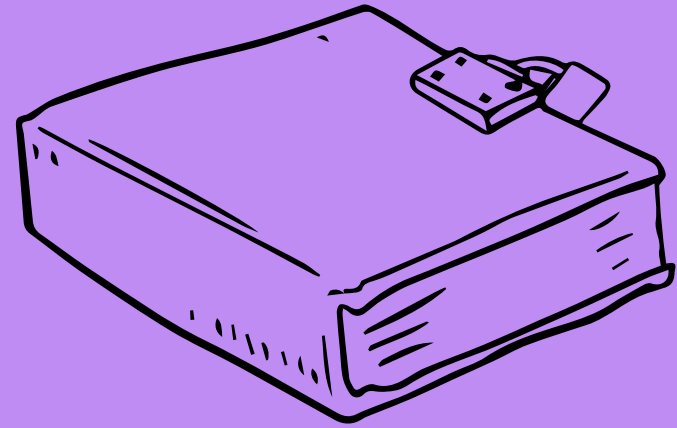

TASK

WRITE A BACKSTORY ABOUT:

- A creature in the game
- A world in the game
- Your own character

DEAR DIARY...

TASK

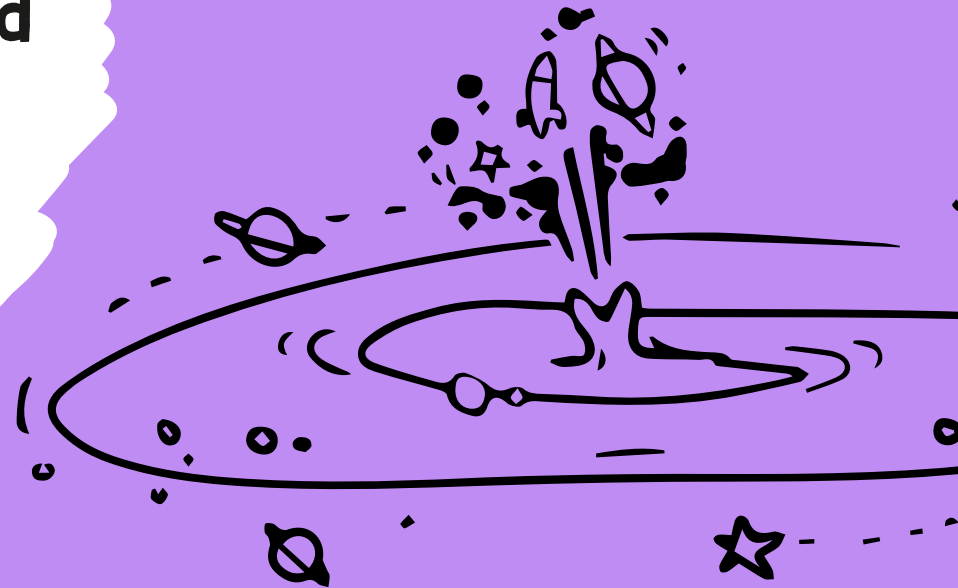

Start writing a journal as one of the LUPU creatures. Tell the diary what happened during a week as one of the creatures of LUPU. And yes, even a Vegan T-Rex can write with those little hands.

BEHOLD! I CAN SEE THE FUTURE!

TASK

Write a story on how the world of yours is after 100 years. And please don't let it turn into a raisin. We all know that it didn't end up well...

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF FAME

TASK

Write an interview with some of the creatures in the game. The interview can be about introducing a certain creature or discussing a certain topic with the creature. For example global warming, living with humans, or the lack of suitable sports activities. You see, every creature loves a little bit of publicity, even the Shy Giants.

DREAM AWAY

TASK

Write a story about your own dream planet. Maybe we will find your dream planet in the future.

DOOM THE EARTH

TASK

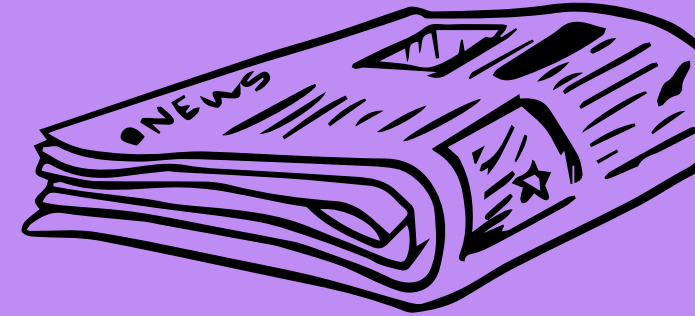

Come up with an alternative story on how Earth became unlivable. When we came up with the raisin story, all it took was one hungry team member eating all the raisins. What will inspire you?

WHO NEEDS YESTERDAY'S PAPERS? I DO I DO!

TASK

Write some news from the planet in newspaper style. Add pictures, interviews, infographics, etc. Or start running your planet's own newspaper. Write news stories about the planet, the space station, the galaxy, the universe or whatever you feel is worth writing about in your newspaper. Include real news sections such as local, national, worldwide, sports, and weather. Come up with different roles for the news team, if possible. Otherwise, creatures and humans would get their news from LUPU Corporation and believe me, those news are just plain boring...

IF I WAS...

TASK

Make an “IF I WAS” story about the LUPU cards.

FOR EXAMPLE:

- If I was a creature from the creature cards, I would be Vegan T-Rex, because...
- If I was in a situation described by an impact card, I would be...because...
